

NEWS #13

Speechless
Reconciliation

Dear Readers,

Welcome to the latest edition of the Speechless Reconciliation newsletter with number 13!

We are excited to share with you the latest updates and achievements from our ongoing journey towards more equal and just world.

In this edition, we are pleased to feature an insightful interview with our alumni from Romania, Pădurean Alin. His experiences and reflections offer valuable insights into the impact of the Speechless Reconciliation program on individual lives.

Additionally, we are thrilled to announce the launch of our new initiative, the Alumni Engager that was launched in the month of December. This platform provides our alumni with exciting opportunities for continued growth and engagement, allowing them to stay connected and contribute to our shared mission.

Furthermore, we are delighted to share news of an exciting opportunity presented to one of our alumni. This opportunity showcases the transformative impact of our program supported by many partners and highlights the ongoing success of our alumni network.

Lastly, we extend a warm invitation to join us at the upcoming celebration on April 20th at Kaiserštejnský palác. This event marks the celebration of the foundation of our newly established NGO and provides an opportunity for our community to come together in support of our mission.

We are deeply grateful for your continued support and commitment to our cause. Together, we are making strides towards a more peaceful and harmonious world.

Thank you for being part of the Speechless Reconciliation family. We hope you enjoy this edition of our newsletter and find inspiration in the stories we share.

Best regards,

The Speechless Reconciliation Team.

Meet our Alumni

Pădurean Alin

Who is Pădurean Alin? Tell us something about yourself.

Hello everyone! My name is Pădurean Alin, I am from Romania. I am a sociable and friendly person, and I like to travel, do sports, and learn many useful things. I am happy to share with you a few things about my experience in Speechless Reconciliation.

How long have you been part of the Speechless Reconciliation community and in what way?

I have been part of the Speechless Reconciliation community since August, when I had the opportunity to participate as a participant of the camp. All participants were friendly and eager to learn many new things.

What is your best memory of this program so far?

The best memory so far was when we all met at a campfire in the evening and shared all the beautiful experiences we had accumulated. It was a very beautiful moment.

Another moment I liked was the intercultural evening where each country prepared products from each country, then I noticed that even if we are different with customs and traditions, this program united us and made us feel integrated, like a family.

Do you have any advice for people interested in volunteering or otherwise contributing to the Speechless Reconciliation?

A tip for people interested in volunteering or participating in this program, is to take that risk of learning new things through non-formal education. The most beautiful things happen beyond the comfort zone.

If you could describe Speechless Reconciliation in one sentence, what would that be?

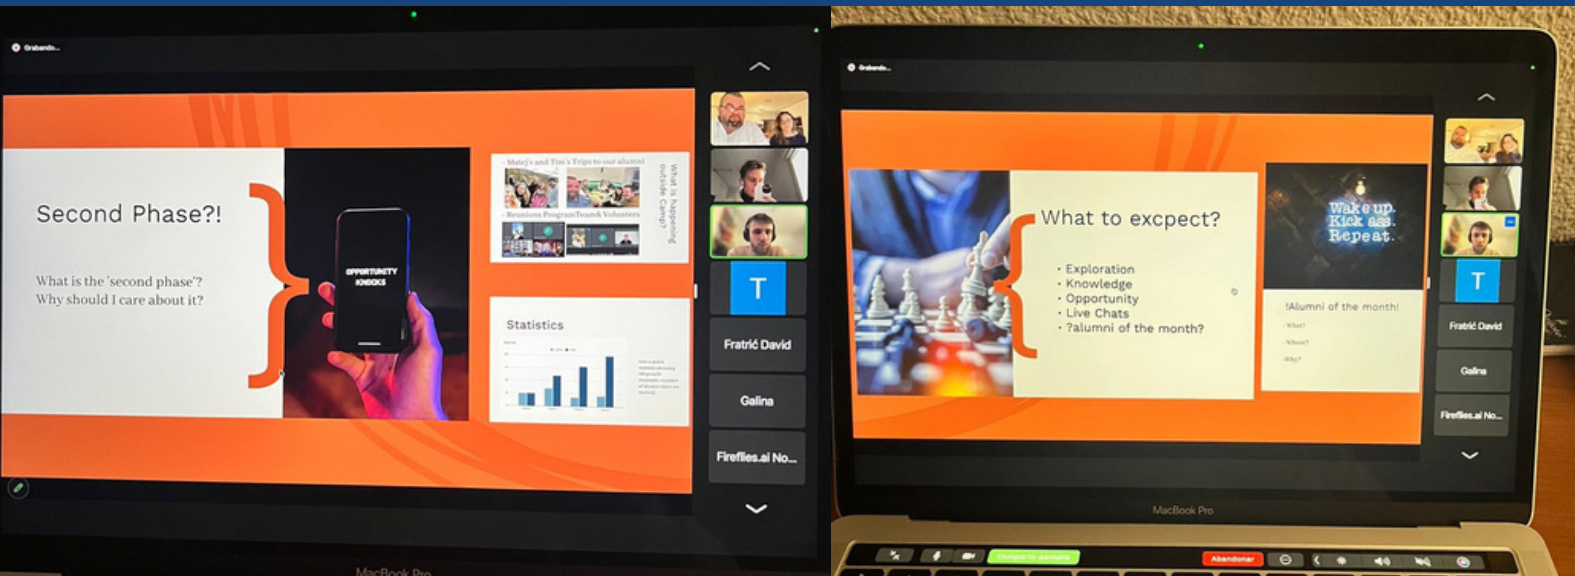

If I had to describe Speechless Reconciliation in one sentence, I would say that it is a program that invests a lot in the development of young people, helping them develop educationally, professionally and personally.

What did Speechless Reconciliation program gave you?

This Speechless Reconciliation program gave me new communication skills, knowledge how to handle every challenge and how important it is to know your own values. Thank you very much!

Launch of the Alumni Engager

On December 20th and 22nd, we held our inaugural meetings for our alumni as part of our Alumni Engager initiative within the second phase of our program. These gatherings provided our alumni with a valuable opportunity to delve into the concept of the Alumni Engager presented by our Alumni Managers, Jens Belon and Ivan Krasnobai and explore the benefits it offers.

From developmental opportunities to ongoing support and resources, our alumni gained insights into how this platform will empower them on their journey beyond the program. We are excited to continue nurturing this vibrant community of individuals committed to making a positive impact, and we look forward to the exciting collaborations and connections that will emerge from these enriching engagements.

Our first Alumni Engager webinar with Adam Volf

Our first ever speaker within the Alumni Engager initiative was Adam Volf, who currently works as Communications and Recruitment Officer in the College of Europe in Natolin, Poland. He held a very insightful and engaging online webinar titled "Europe in Nutshell," hosted exclusively for our esteemed Alumni as part of our Alumni Engager initiative.

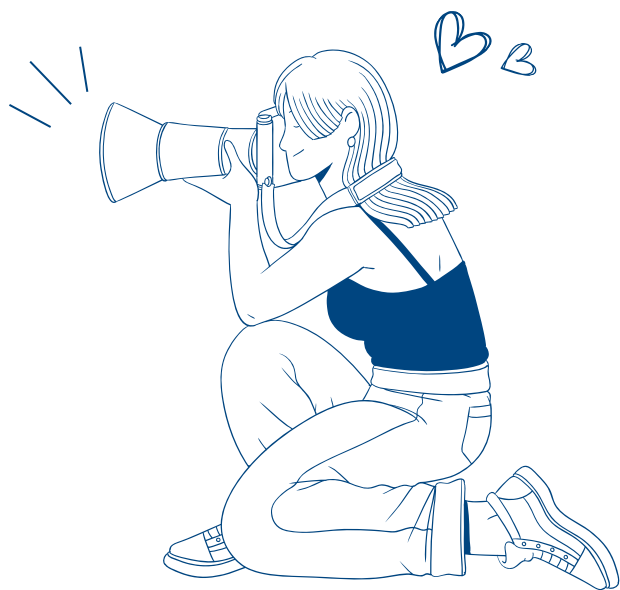

Adam's expertise and passion illuminated the complexities and nuances of European affairs, providing our alumni with valuable insights and perspectives. His interactive session sparked discussions and deepened our alumni's understanding of the continent's dynamic landscape. We extend our sincere appreciation to Adam for his invaluable contribution to our alumni community, and we look forward to more enriching collaborations in the future.

Focus on

2nd phase of the Speechless Reconciliation program in action.

Our alumni of 2023 developmental camp, Danča Lišková, has been recently given an opportunity to be a photographer for a movie premier of One Life movie that took place on 2nd of February in Prague. This premier was co-organized by one of our long-time supporters, Jonathan Wootliff and member of the Rotary Club Prague International. We are extremely happy for Danča and for the opportunity she has been given.
